

2007 - 2014

- We are a non-profit organization
- We found in 2007, named "German - Sri Lankan Association" and base in Saxony, Germany
- Our new name: Association for International Development - Saxony (GENINSA)
- We focus on income-generating activities for poor women and children

We are

- We wish to help more and more people to:
- Enhance their life quality
 - Improve their income
 - Gain technique and commercial knowledge

We do

- Our current partners are three NGOs in Sri Lanka
- We implemented eight projects successfully with total amount: 100.000 €
- We supported 1.700 borrowers and their families by providing credit on favorable terms and acquire some basic commercial skills

Besides, we also provided more than 30 Watertanks to schools in the Central Highlands
